

COMMUNITY CONNECTIONS

Fall 2009

Come Tour Our New Facility!

Dear Friend of JFCS,

Welcome to your newly expanded JFCS! As the recently installed Board Chair, it is my honor and pleasure to invite you to visit our expanded facility at our main campus on Fruitville Road. Tours of the new building will be offered every Tuesday from 9:30 – 10:30 a.m. and every Thursday from 3:30 – 4:30 p.m. during the months of October and November. Please call Andria Bilan at 366-2224 to make your reservation for a tour.

The 6,000 square foot addition allows us to offer our clients expanded services that address their basic needs in a professional manner that preserves their dignity and privacy. More than 44,000 people in our community were served by JFCS this past year and we continue to be the local premier counseling and social service safety net for anyone facing life's challenges. On behalf of the Board, staff and clients of JFCS, many thanks to the over 250 individual donors, foundations and business partners who contributed a very generous total of $4,595,822 to make this expansion possible!

You still have the opportunity to support this building expansion by purchasing a commemorative brick for the front walkway. Personalized engraved bricks are a meaningful way to honor or memorialize a loved one or show your support of JFCS. An order form to participate in our Buy-a-Brick program appears on page 3 of this newsletter.

I am looking forward to serving as the JFCS Board Chair for the next two years and personally meeting you at one of the many exciting events we have planned for the coming year.

Best wishes,

Marie Money

PRESENTING...

JFCS Speaker's Bureau!

It is often difficult to fill an organization's calendar with interesting speakers week after week or month after month. If you are a member of a community or religious organization and attend its monthly programming, please suggest JFCS and its Speakers Bureau to your organization's program director. We can deliver a presentation on one of following topics:

- Caregiving: How you can care for your parent or spouse, including transitioning a loved one into a nursing home and caring for the caregiver.
- Supporting our Veterans: Operation Military Assistance Program (MAP), funded by the Florida BRAIVE fund of the Gulf Coast Community Foundation of Venice provides counseling and supportive services to veterans, active military personnel and their families serving our country through Operation Enduring Freedom or Operation Iraqi Freedom.
- Safe Alternative to Out-of-School Suspension: Serving the needs of at-risk youth through trained adult volunteer mentors and tutors.
- Jewish Healing Programs: Learn how you can provide a spiritual connection to seniors or care recipients as a Friendly Visitor, Bikkur Cholim Para-Chaplain, leading Shabbat or Festival Services at area nursing homes, or providing end of life support as a Doula Volunteer.
- Tikkun Olam: How the joy of giving has defined the life of Betty Schoenbaum, a highly regarded, leading Jewish philanthropist and supporter of JFCS.

Our presentations are provided free of charge. Please contact Marty Katz at 941-366-2224 or mkatz@jfcs-cares.org for more information.

Feeling Good By Paying Back

“It makes me feel good!” That sentiment is expressed by many of our volunteers, but especially so by Joel Blumsack, a new volunteer for the Senior Outreach Service. Joel and his wife, Judy moved here from Alpharetta, GA three years ago and began volunteering for JFCS last winter, after learning about the agency from his fellow tennis player, SOS Volunteer Chair, Arnold Elliott.

Joel helps SOS by serving lunch during its weekly Wednesday meetings. He also spends time with care recipients while their caregivers are attending the weekly caregiver’s support group. Joel says he has enjoyed getting to know the care recipients, saying “everyone was somebody before they came here.” He likes to keep their mind active by doing trivia and word puzzles with them.

Joel also donates the birthday cakes for the group’s monthly celebrations. He says, “My mom, who just turned 100, is in a Jewish nursing home in Connecticut. Many people do nice things for her; this is my way of paying back.”

INNOVATIVE CAREGIVER PROGRAM

Weinberg Foundation Awards Grant

The Harry and Jeanette Weinberg Foundation, one of the largest private foundations in the United States, has awarded JFCS a three year challenge grant of $708,229 to develop and implement an innovative program which addresses the needs of caregivers and their loved ones. The JFCS project, Caregivers Accessing Resources and Essential Services (CARES) will provide training, technical assistance, and implementation of a Wraparound System as a support model to older adult caregivers; educate community agencies about caregiver issues; recruit and train volunteers to work with caregivers and loved ones; provide transportation to caregivers and their loved ones; and formulate performance measures to evaluate the program.

Serving as the local lead agency, JFCS is collaborating with the following community organizations:

- Goodwill Industries/Sarasota Ministerial Alliance
- The Pines Education Institute
- Sarasota County Government
- SCOPE
- Sarasota Memorial Hospital Memory Disorders Clinic

- Senior Friendship Center/Friendship Volunteer Centers
- United Way 2-1-1
- University of South Florida

“JFCS has been utilizing Wraparound Services to serve at-risk children and families in our community for several years. This innovative project generously funded by the Weinberg Foundation will allow JFCS to adapt this client-driven system to determine the service needs of caregivers and their loved ones. Our CARES Program will enforce caregiver strengths and reduce the stressors that negatively affect their lives,” stated Rose Chapman, President/CEO of JFCS.

According to the 2003 National Alliance for Caregiving / AARP National Caregiver Survey, an estimated 30 million adults provide ongoing care for family and friends with 75 percent of their care provided by family members and other informal caregivers. The number of older adults who need assistance from formal and informal caregivers continues to increase due in large part to longer life expectancies and greatly improved health care techniques and technologies.

Annual Friends Campaign Launched

The arrival of the Fall season kicks off the agency's annual fund-raising campaign. The 2009-2010 Annual Friends Campaign is chaired by Sanford Milter with Honorary Co-Chairs, Sylvia Cohodas, Bea Friedman, Betty Schiff and Betty Schoenbaum, and over 120 community leaders supporting the campaign as Honorary Vice-Chairs. The campaign will directly support counseling and social services offered to children, families and seniors seeking help from JFCS.

We know it's been a tough year for many of us...but it's been an even tougher year for our clients who have faced life's challenges amidst an uncertain economy. Over 44,000 clients turned to Jewish Family & Children's Service last year; a record 20% increase for the agency.

How you can make a difference...

- $1,000 will provide year long tutoring and mentoring to one middle school student referred to our Safe Alternative to Out-of-School Suspension program

Many large companies have matching gift programs for employees and retirees. When making a donation to JFCS, please inquire if your company will match your gift. Thank you!

- $500 allows a client to participate in a six-week bereavement support group through our Jewish Healing Program to cope with the loss of a loved one
- $180 sponsors a geriatric care assessment for a homebound elderly Jewish client
- $150 provides one week of groceries to a needy family through our Food Pantry
- $100 enables JFCS to offer one family life education workshop on a topic such as Grandparenting, Interfaith Marriages, Effective Parenting and Anger Management
- $50 pays for one week of diapers and formula for a new baby in our Healthy Families/Healthy Children's Program

Please join us in this vital community effort to support the 2009-2010 Annual Friends campaign. Your financial assistance is more critical than ever as the need is greater than ever. We know we can count on you to help us help others.

Please use the envelope in the center of this newsletter for your donation. Thank you for your support!

L'Dor V'Dor Legacy Society

“We established a charitable gift annuity for JFCS at the Community Foundation of Sarasota County. It is in part an expression of our commitment to the tradition of Tikkun Olam, our obligation to repair the world, and our vote of confidence in a professional agency that offers caring services to our local community.”

DOROTHY JACOBSON

L'Dor...V'Dor; from generation to generation, is a Jewish value that offers promise from current generations to future generations. In keeping with this Jewish tradition, the JFCS L'Dor V'Dor Legacy Society was established in 2005 to provide donors the opportunity to make a gift which ensures the long term sustainability of the agency's vital programs and services.

We invite you to become a member of our L'Dor V'Dor Legacy Society... committing to the Jewish value of Tikkun Olam, and setting the example to the community and your family that you are indeed making the world a better place than you found it. Your legacy gift to JFCS will ensure continuum of care for the most vulnerable in our community...children, families and seniors who turn to JFCS when they can't do it alone!

You can design your gift to match your unique, personal financial circumstances. The simplest, most effective way to support JFCS is through a bequest. You can easily make a provision in your Will of cash, stock, or other personal property, naming JFCS as the beneficiary.

Other planned giving tools to consider are gifts of retirement assets (IRA or Pension Plans), life insurance policies, or life income plans, such as Charitable Gift Annuities, Charitable Remainder Trusts or Charitable Lead Trusts

Please consult with your professional financial advisor or attorney to decide which planned giving option is right for you. For more information, contact Andria Bilan at 941-366-2224.

Changing People's Lives

We often find it difficult to bring our mission to life... providing comprehensive counseling and social services to people confronting life's challenges... due to the confidential nature of our work with clients. This feature, "Stories from the Frontline," allows you, our volunteers and donors, to better understand the impact your time and generosity have on individuals in our community. Join us, as we go to the frontline to witness how our programs and services change people's lives. Meet three of our clients who proudly shared their stories...

If you or someone you know can benefit from our programs and services or you wish to lend a helping hand as a volunteer, please call JFCS at 941-366-2224 or contact us by email at info@jfcs-cares.org. We will be happy to refer you to the staff member best able to help.

BUILDING HEALTHY FAMILIES AND HEALTHY CHILDREN

“They are one of our best success stories,” says Kathleen Palmer, Family Coordinator of the Healthy Families/Healthy Children (HF/HC) program at JFCS, referring to 21 year old Shauniece Lee and her family. Shauniece began seeing Kathleen over a year ago when she was referred to the agency by Healthy Start for counseling. After becoming pregnant, she and her fiancé, 25 year old Richard Aguilar, enrolled in the HF/HC program to improve their communication skills. They were both single parents when they met.

HF/HC, funded by a 5 year grant from the U.S. Department of Health & Human Services prepares young couples to enter parenthood through skill building, conflict resolution and parenting education in a 10-week course. Attendees must be unmarried adult couples who are either expecting a baby or have an infant less than three months old. Shauniece says “we learned a variety of skills, such as how to manage our stress and words not to use, such as the word, ‘never’. I also learned to always start a conversation with something positive.”

Another bonus of the class was the relationships built within the group of students. “We were with the same people in the same boat, all with children or about to have children. At the end, nobody wanted to leave. We were one big happy family,” Shauniece remembers.

Upon graduation, couples receive $50 in gift certificates for assistance with baby supplies. As a follow-up to the program, couples and their families also receive in-home support services to reinforce their new relationship skills, assistance to provide greater access to community resources and monthly alumni “booster” classes. Couples may continue receiving services for two years from the date of first registering for the program.

“When I first heard of Jewish Family & Children’s Service, I thought the agency only helped people who were of the Jewish religion. Now that I know they help everyone, I give out their number all the time,” Shauniece exclaims.

Shauniece and Richard both work in nursing at the Pines of Sarasota. In addition to working and being a mother to three, Shauniece is enrolled at State College of Florida, getting her Bachelor of Science in nursing. Kathleen says, “Despite having difficult youths, Shauniece and Richard are very committed parents. They want what is best for their kids and are willing to utilize the resources to better their lives. They are genuinely interested in finding ways to improve their relationship with the goal of becoming better parents.”

LENDING A HELPING HAND TO VETERANS

Scott and Sharon Driscoll have had a rough few years. Scott, who was working as a recruiter for the Florida Army National Guard was dismissed from his job two years ago. They were new parents, with a one-month old daughter, Shyanne. Scott

Shauniee Lee & Richard Aguilar with Myah, Laylah & Samara

Sharon, Scott & Shyanne Driscoll

Maria & Dennis Gotthelf

immediately began working with a lawyer to get his job reinstated but that was going to take time. He became attached to a unit in Melbourne one weekend a month which resulted in minimal income to support the family.

A year ago, his Melbourne unit was deployed to Afghanistan, sending him overseas to fight for Operation Enduring Freedom. Sharon was alone with her then one-year old daughter and had to deal with the lawsuit on Scott's behalf.

While Scott was overseas, Sharon began working with Manatee Operation Troop Support (MOTS) who helped her with home maintenance. As her stress level increased, MOTS referred her to the Operation Military Assistance Program (MAP) at JFCS. Funded through a grant from The Gulf Coast Community Foundation of Venice and its BRAIVE Fund, the program helps veterans and families of deployed military personnel. It provides a long list of services, including financial and housing assistance, mentoring, and mental health and substance abuse counseling.

Sharon began meeting with Devon Jarrett, Operation MAP Coordinator in May for emotional support. "I needed some stability and some normalcy. Devon has helped me see things clearer and my faith is now stronger," she says.

Scott returned home to Florida early in July only to find that his recruiting job was not reinstated. Now that Scott is home and his salary as a deployed Sergeant has come to an end, the Driscolls are worried about their ability to pay their mortgage. Devon was able to pay their July mortgage and is now working with them on a budget and a plan going forward. In the meantime, Scott is looking for another recruiting job outside the state.

Sharon is so thankful for Devon's help in making a tough situation less stressful. She says, "Its great there are programs out there to help veterans. These guys are doing so much for our country, going over there and putting their lives on the line. Without these organizations, what would they do? "

CARING FOR THOSE IN NEED

“Someone cared.” That’s how Maria Virginia Gotthelf felt when JFCS returned her phone call pleading for help. Her husband, 54 year old Dennis Gotthelf, was unable to work after being injured from a fall off of a ladder. Their financial and emotional situation was dire.

The Gotthelfs were able to receive help thanks to the Emergency Assistance Program, a partnership between JFCS and the Sarasota-Manatee Jewish Federation. Funded by SMJE, the program pays for financial assistance with housing and utilities, distribution of food vouchers and the salary of a Case Manager to work strictly with area Jews who turn to JFCS for help.

Given the recent economy, the Gotthelfs were already facing financial challenges when his accident occurred. Dennis was a handyman and property manager. His injury required back surgery to replace a disc and insert two screws in his back. The January surgery was successful but a few weeks later he returned to the hospital with a 106 degree fever and a very serious staph MRSA infection which had traveled throughout his bloodstream. After a second surgery to clean the infected wound, he was left in immense pain and unable to work. Maria, doubled up on cleaning jobs, working day and night, but also needed to be the caretaker for her husband. There was no way to make ends meet.

Enter JFCS. Dennis was referred to JFCS by relatives and the Congregation for Humanistic Judaism. Case Manager Gwen Gold paid them a home visit, since Dennis was in bandages and a back brace and unable to travel distances. Gwen was able to provide the Gotthelfs rent assistance and Publix food vouchers. She also lent an empathetic ear and helped them manage the stress of these difficult times. Gwen is now working with Dennis to re-frame his business perspective to accommodate his current physical limitations.

“We are so grateful to JFCS and the Federation for their help. They were here exactly when we needed them. We received more than we expected,” says Dennis. His prognosis is uncertain and doctors anticipate a slow recovery. “Our services are available to the Gotthelfs and people like them as long as they are in need,” Gwen says.

JFCS is proud to announce that it has been reaccredited by the Council on Accreditation (COA). Undertaken every four years, the COA reaccreditation process involves a detailed review and analysis of both an organization's administrative operations and its service delivery practices. Organizations are "measured" against national standards of best practice. These standards emphasize that services are accessible, appropriate, culturally responsive, evidence based and outcomes-oriented. In addition, services must be provided by a skilled and supported workforce with all individuals being treated with dignity and respect. COA maintains the highest level of standards and quality improvement and is designed to identify providers that set high performance standards and are committed to delivering the highest quality services. Have you had your Tasti today?

Stop in for dessert or beat the heat with a cold treat on Tuesday, October 20th and Tasti D-Lite will donate 10% of your bill to support JFCS.

What is Tasti D-Lite?

Tasti D-Lite is a dairy-based soft serve frozen dessert. Not frozen yogurt, because it doesn't contain fermented yogurt cultures. Not ice cream, because it contains less than 10% butter fat. Depending on the flavor, Tasti D-Lite has between 70 and 100 calories per 4 fluid ounce serving.

This coupon must accompany your order and can not be combined with other offers.
